

Spending the weekend in Stockholm

“If you already are familiar with Stockholm, The Capital of Scandinavia, you probably have your favourite place to stay. But if this is your first time please feel free to take advantage of our recommendations.”

Where to stay (check out www.booking.com for best rates):

Grand Hotel Stockholm City, 5 star/the best!	Approx. 450 Euro for a double room/night
Hotel Birger Jarl Stockholm City, 4 star/boutique	Approx.190 Euro for a double room/night with breakfast
Mälardrottningen Yacht Hotel Old Town Stockholm 3 star	Approx. 120 Euro for Twin room/night with breakfast
STF Fridhemsplan Hotel 6 Hostel, Stockholm, 2 star	Approx. 69 Euro for Twin room/night
Park Inn by Radisson, Solna, 4 star	Approx. 180 Euro for Double room/night with breakfast

Where to eat

Stockholm has everything when it comes to eating but if you want genuine, here are our picks:

Restaurant Pelikan	Phone: +46 (0)8-556 090 90, www.pelikan.se Address: Blekingegatan 40, Stockholm
Aifur (Viking) Restaurant & Bar	Phone: +46 (0)8-20 10 55, www.aifur.se Address: Old Town, Stockholm
Kvarnen Restaurant & Beer Hall	Phone: +46(0)8 643 03 80, www.kvarnen.se Address: Tjärhovsgatan 4, Stockholm
Stockholms Gästabud	Phone: +46(0)8 21 99 21, www.gastabudstockholm.se Address: Old Town, Stockholm

What to see

There is only one must in Stockholm and then you are free to pursue your own interests:

The Vasa Museum	www.vasamuseet.se Address: Galärvarsvägen 14, Djurgården, Stockholm
-----------------	--