

New CEO to enhance the PrimeKey proposition

Mr Magnus Svenningson has today been appointed CEO of PrimeKey Solutions. “I am delighted that Magnus Svenningson has accepted the challenge. With his background from the security and ID-document world he brings experience vital to PrimeKey’s future growth” says Jan Nygren, Chairman of the Board.

Tomas Gustavsson, CTO and Co-founder, says, “Magnus has the skill set we have been looking for. Together with Magnus, the management team and the know-how PrimeKey possesses, we will continue to focus on customer value and thereby make a real difference in the market place”.

Svenningson adds, “With the emergence of Internet of Things (IoT) we will see billions of devices coming online, and it becomes ever more important to keep information secure. PrimeKey is uniquely positioned with its experience and products to be a significant player in this revolution happening now”.
